

me if you
 I don't wish very much as the party
 some time
 that late
 you a count-
 of the one
 by leaving the child's name was I am sure
 an imitation
 of the Archbishop of the North - I am

We have have just dropped anchor at Gibraltar and have received, all or nearly all the letters that have gone to Malta, as well as your letter of May 18th very satisfactory. indeed you see we both have suffered in the same way. I can't account for my own disease or of course if you did not receive my letters. you could not tell where to write to, altho how they have missed you I can't understand.

William sends me a most important note, I answer it with this. we are going to have a grand fete tomorrow the Queens birthday. a Love Melanc

I must attend Bellevue great misadventure, ch! The Admirable and I believe and we remain here as Senior officer so write write directly safely to Gibraltar until and you will do well private message with this a half printed note written at Cadix there was a <sup>yesterday</sup> full fight. ~~the~~ Swearing at Cadix which many copy messengers attended but was lost. I remained on board. was killed. Not to mention who perished. generally the area. leaving the greater part of them internal arrangements the true account of this, by Balen account of the Turkish He says, p 6 Dear Sir, I have just received your letter and think it very interesting. I am sorry that I cannot give you more information at present but I will write you again as soon as I can and give you a full account of the matter. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, J. G.

on the ground. to the great delight of the Spanish Ladies one of the prettiest and youngest of them. waved her kerchief with great glee. who I think you of your mother mine, By the by. I visited the Opera a Saturday night. Long house. So So says very Prima Donna pretty. Prima Actrice (Stoutness) <sup>Shelling</sup> the Duke's Dishes of Matrox who are travelling about in a small way. & Lord of the House were there.
 Opera was "Matilde" by some Frenchwoman
 A. L. Coum de Leon. et here. &c.
 Cadix is remarkably clean town and there is all I can say for it and architectural beauties of the the Cathedral which though well & is generally finished - in the west & elaborate stone work. Marble Capitals & bases.

but you must go to Florence and see the Chapel de Medici. before you can talk of beautiful interiors here even such odd account of S. S. we over saw Admiral he is 75 & upwards & delicate but knew some tricks and has introduced such new customs. that hea. tricks any body. the last order issued is that all Officers wishing to see him in person must come before six in the morning (what would we say to that?) <sup>quite an old pig eh!</sup> The General keep you in the better

