

Royal Albert off Sevastopol
14 February 1855.

Messrs,

Having received intelligence that the Russians are in force around Eufatoria, it is my direction that you proceed in the Barrattes
to that place at daylight tomorrow morning, and place yourself under

the

the orders of the Senior Officers.

of Her Majesty's Ships there.

T. J. Jones -

Rear Admiral and Commander in Chief

To,
Captain Ryder,
His Ship.

Danville

275

Verbal order through Mr Young given by (C. H. ...) Underweigh and off mouth of harbour at 3 o'clock -

Sat - 10 PM
17th

Sunday 12th

No one there was written last night immediately Mr Young had left my cabin