Hair samples of mutineers widows contained

Susan Young

Isabella Christian wife of Old Christian

Dear Anne Hyde

As you kindly told me I have taken a small fraction of the hair of Isabella Christian, and also of Susan Young, & Jenny the grand daughter of Edward Young the other Midshipman of the ill-fated Bounty. I look at these mementos with melancholy interest, as the dreadful events of his almost childhood being so young

When he first left home, chastened my dear father's life he died when hardly 50 of heart complaint.

I should like some day to show you my Mounty relics, perhaps you remarked the portrait over the fire place, really a speaking likeness.

With warmest thanks
 I remain your very truly Diana Pellice.

This from Lady Beecher daughter of Cap. Heyward who was a midshipman in the Bonnet & coerced by the mutineers.

He was tried as a mutineer and found guilty, & reprimanded for 99 years —

I got the two ad^{rs} addresses of Christian & Mary to give
