Dear Admiral Pyle

Accept my sincere
 thanks for the papers
 and pamphlets you
 kindly sent me, and
 for the cordial reception we met with from yourself and your officers at Hongkong.

The kindness & the always, I am sure, from the heavy will be a stimulus to use my best efforts for the benefit of the service in Parliament.

We made a fine
passage of time day to day before
moderate industry.
I am, Sir,
Yours sincerely,
