Dear Admiral Ryder -

I don't distinctly remember for which room Admiral Duncan's portrait was wanted? Was it for the new Ball room, that futile source of controversy which was finally settled in Sir R. Mundy's favour by Sir A. Clarke?

I have one or two portraits of Ld. Duncan wh. are not absolutely wanted at Campden :
but they are now remarkable for size than for excellence as works of art - If you will let us know what dimensions of picture you require I might be better able to answer you -

When shall you again be in London on the Atlanta Commission ? I should be very glad to see you any day at Luncheon, or at the H. of Lords or anywhere you may name -

Yours truly,

Campden
