March 3. / 93.

To Alfred's sister who died
8th July 1893

My dear Lady Grey

Thank you so much for your letter - It is always a pleasure to see your handwriting
- Agnes is at Biarritz since upon the whole she is having very good weather - They have had one tremendous gale when the sea was quite magnificent

Is 'Agnes' referred to here Eddy's widow?
Otherwise why is this letter filed with his papers?

The gives a good account of herself.
And is not like the same person she was last year.
I do not however intend her to come home in the middle of May as to come before we be to seek after the advantage of the winter abroad - Mary is very well & is here with me in London - Agnes has the little Agnes with her. & Edward is at School near Regate where I have very good accounts of them - I had been intending to join Agnes at Beccles but I have so much to do that with one thing or other that I have been forced to give the idea up - Alice my sister is at St Jean de Luz - Emily comes to London on Monday. Edith & Henry Lorry are here & Freddie & Amy are.

she is bound in my flourishing with the exception of Henry was at Huckleton Schaests the family - I am very indignant about this Suspensory Bill - for Wales - and I had a letter I have been pulling out about it - I wonder whether you will think it too strong.

- I will find out about the Bishop of Exeter's country & let you know the result - I was at Hampton Court with "Aunt Georgiana" the other day she is 92 & is
